

Young Company Theatre Camp

OK Shakespeare's Young Company Theatre Camp is Back!

Spark your child's imagination and talent with Oklahoma Shakespeare in the Park's Young Company Theatre Camp. Returning this summer under the direction of Abigail Schmitz, your teen will learn the fundamentals of classical acting in a week-long experience, culminating in a performance on our beautiful outdoor Shakespearean stage.

Our YCTC will focus on skill sets that benefit youth on stage as well as in everyday life. Our classes celebrate the process of learning, experimenting, taking risks, and challenging expectations. Students walk through the full rehearsal process including auditions, casting, & performance.

Abigail Schmitz

Meet the teacher!

Abigail Schmitz is a local Oklahoma theatre artist and educator. It is her sixth season working professionally with OK Shakes. She has worked around the country as a teaching artist, dramaturg, director, and actor. Abigail has been teaching ELA and drama at Newcastle High School the past three years. This year she was awarded teacher of the year at her site. She is looking forward to meeting this year's campers!
